

Household Bills Paid Every Month for Life

by Monthly Income
Checks
of

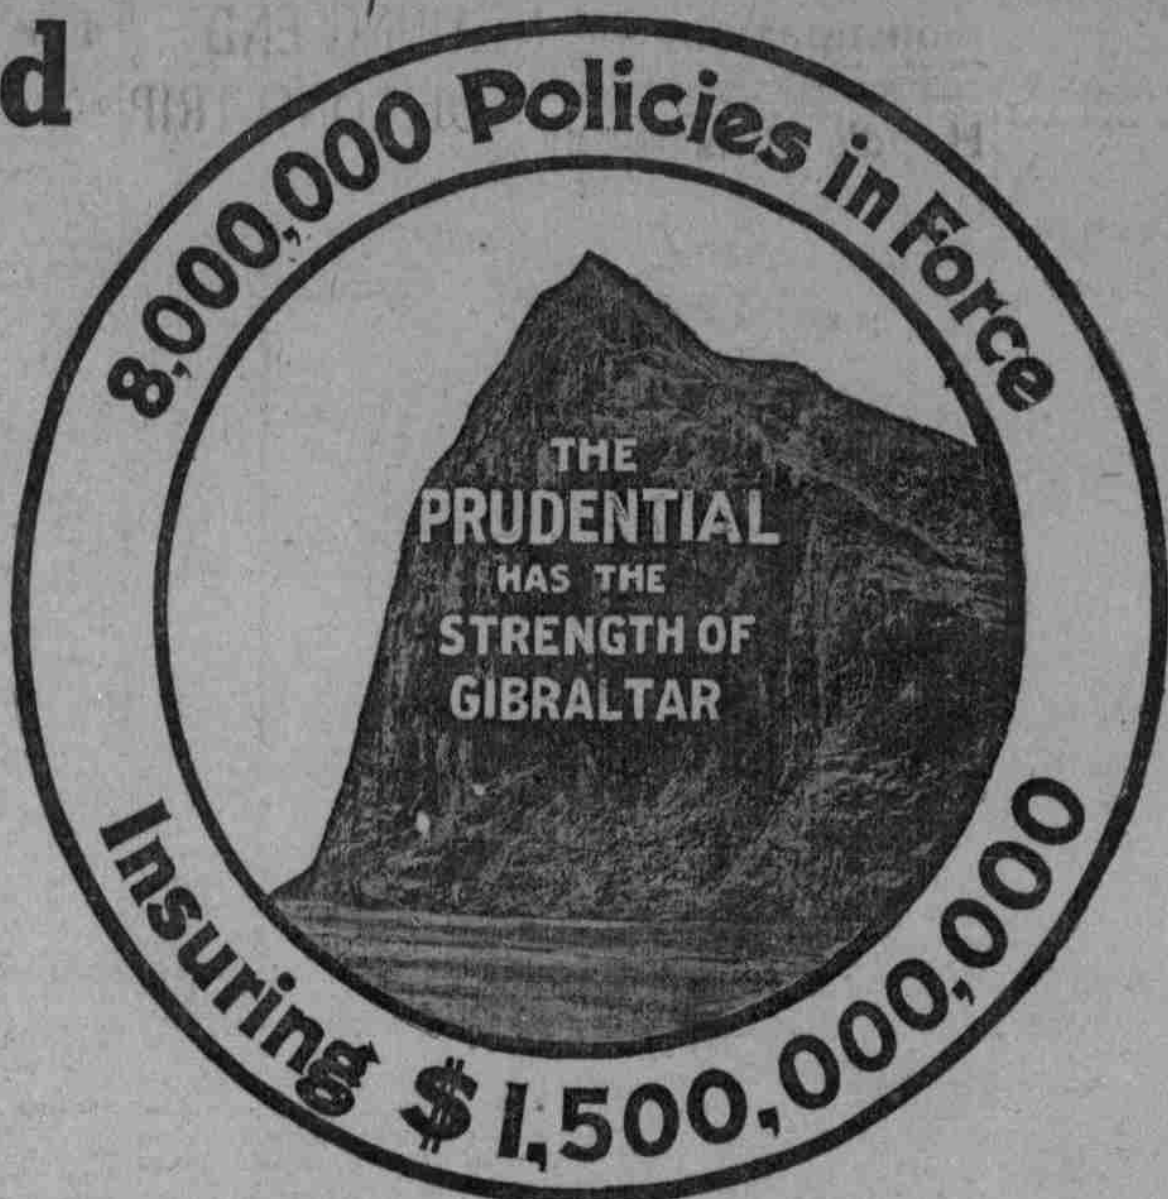

The Prudential

This Newest Monthly Income Policy gives cash payment at death of Insured and then a regular monthly income for your wife for 20 years or for life—all guaranteed

Cost is Low

Illustration:

$1230 Cash, and $50 a month for life costs, on the Whole Life Plan, if age of Insured is 30, and age of Beneficiary, 25, $221.40 per Year, an average saving of $18.45 per Month, NOW

THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE CO. OF AMERICA

Incorporated as a Stock Company by the State of New Jersey

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President.

HOME OFFICE, NEWARK, N. J.

Agents Wanted to write Industrial and Ordinary Life Insurance
Good Income—Promotion—Best Opportunities—Now!

BRANCH OFFICE IN BARRE

JOHN QUINN, Agency Organizer, Dodge Building, Main and Granite Streets.

AGENTS --- W. Reid, W. M. Carswell, P. J. Bruce.

Ordinary policies.
Ages 15 to 66.
Both sexes.
Amounts, up to $100,000.

Prudential Agents are now canvassing in this vicinity. They have a most vital story to tell of how Life Insurance has saved the home, protected the widow, and educated the children. Let them tell it to you.

COL. ROOSEVELT IS IN FINE HEALTH

Lord Delamere's Guest—Mrs. Roosevelt's Anxiety Relieved Through Cablegram.

Rome, Nov. 8.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt is in perfect health. He is the guest of Lord Delamere.

So reports a cablegram from Nairobi, British East Africa, which the American embassy received Saturday evening. Of course the good news greatly relieved Mrs. Roosevelt's anxiety. While not crediting it, she was much disturbed by the report that her husband had been killed while hunting in Africa.

Lord Delamere has an estate of 100,000 acres in British East Africa twelve miles from Njoro, a station on the Mombasa railroad about 465 miles from the coast. Although the equator line runs through the estate, it is 7,000 feet above the sea level.

Lord Delamere, a game warden of British East Africa, was Col. Roosevelt's host for several days of last summer. He is a mighty hunter and so are his wife, a handsome daughter of the earl of Enniskillen, and her brother, R. B. Cole, who passes most of his time on the African estate.

HIS COON SCORNS SHOTS.

Heavy Hunter Doesn't See Point Until Rope's Cut.

Winsted, Conn., Nov. 8.—F. A. Farrar, a Manchester hardware merchant and heavyweight, was induced by friends to go hunting in Hebron for coons last night. In the woods the dogs barked and the hunters started on a run. Farrar brought up the rear.

The moon revealed a coon in a tree top. Farrar fired twice, but the coon did not move. "It's no use," said N. B. Richards, "I'm going up and snake him down." He climbed right up to the coon and cut a rope. When the animal struck the ground Farrar shot it. But the coon had been dead twenty-four hours. Richards had bagged it the night before and tied it in the tree for Farrar's benefit.

BRAKEMAN BEAT OFF TRAIN ROBBERS

But Is Shot by Highwaymen—Attempt Was Made to Loot Five Cars.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—In an attempt to loot a train on the Chicago-Milwaukee and Puget Sound railroad, robbers yesterday shot and wounded A. L. Jackson, a brakeman, at Round Lake, Wis. Passengers from Waukegan and Libertyville are scouring the Illinois and Wisconsin border for the highwaymen.

The robbers cut off the last five cars of the train on a siding. They ran motor trucks alongside the cars to carry away their booty. Jackson, the brakeman, came running from the engine. With no other weapon than an iron bar, he confronted the robbers and demanded their surrender. They responded with a volley of bullets, one shot striking Jackson in the head. The robbers then fled.

BOY WITH BROKEN LEG NOT TARDY AT SCHOOL

Lad Crippled on Way Has His Mates Carry Him to Class to Keep His Record Perfect.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 8.—Edward Delay, aged fifteen, son of John Delay of High street, fell and broke his leg while on his way to the public school Friday, but so anxious was he to maintain a perfect record in attendance that he got several of his mates to carry him to the school, about a quarter of a mile. When the injured boy and his companions drew near the school, the teacher, Miss Carter, learning what had happened, had Delay taken to his home. The boy was hurrying across lots that he might not be late, and in running down what is known as the "Sandpiper" on Freestone avenue, fell and sustained a compound fracture of his right leg. His desire to preserve his two months' standing of perfect attendance made him ignore the pain of his injury, and he managed to attract the attention of some schoolmates and with their assistance got to school on time.

Carrie Nation Under Arrest.

New York, Nov. 8.—After entering the safe of the Hotel Knickerbocker and shouting that the men drinking were going straight to hell—Carrie A. Nation, the redoubtable Kansas saloon smasher, was followed down Broadway by a shouting crowd Saturday night until arrested and taken to the Tenderloin police station, charged with disorderly conduct.

LINER IN COLLISION.

Big Steamer from Havre for New York Hits St. Bartholmy.

Havre, Nov. 8.—The big French liner La Lorraine, which sailed Saturday for New York, returned here at 10 o'clock last night. She reported that she was struck by an unknown steamer off De La Hague and her forward plates damaged, but nobody was hurt. The passengers and freight will be transferred to the La Gasogne.

The steamer in collision with the La Lorraine was the St. Bartholmy. The shock when the vessels came together was extremely violent and caused a panic among La Lorraine's passengers, most of whom had come to their cabins after dinner. The officers retained their presence of mind, however, and quickly went among the passengers to calm their excitement. Nevertheless, the damage was serious. The St. Bartholmy also put back to Havre. Her stem is smashed.

Seek Scalp of William Loeb.

Washington, Nov. 8.—A congressional inquiry into the New York custom house is the program arranged by a powerful group of New York importers, according to a story which The Star will print today. The importers. It is said, make no bones of their purpose to get the official scalp of William Loeb, collector of the port of the metropolis.

The New York delegation in Congress will ask for a special committee to probe into the affairs of Mr. Loeb's office within a day or so after the opening of the national legislature.

FEARS FOR HOUSE OF LORDS

King Afraid it Will be Swept Away

VAINLY BULLIED ASQUITH

"I May Be Left the Only Hereditary Institution in the Three Kingdoms," Is the Lament of His Majesty.

London, Nov. 8.—King Edward is in an earnest controversy with Premier Asquith over the budget. His Majesty cares little about the budget itself, but he desires intensely to smooth away the conflict between the Lords and the Commons.

Of the possible result of this conflict the King has said:

"It may leave me the only hereditary institution in the three kingdoms." His Majesty's attitude became so aggressive recently, constant report has it, that the premier was forced to tell him firmly he was overstepping his constitutional prerogatives.

When the King summoned Mr. Asquith to Balmoral Castle a month ago he told the premier peremptorily that the fight between the Lords and Commons must be averted at all cost. The King proposed that Asquith drop the land taxes on condition that the House of Lords agree to pass the rest of the budget. The premier refused to listen to terms which, he said, would drive practically his whole party into revolt. But Asquith offered to consider any proposition for a possible compromise with which Lord Lansdowne, the opposition leader in the House of Lords, might approach him.

The world correspondent learns that the last words the King uttered to the premier at this remarkable interview were:

"An accommodation must be arrived at." This command the King conveyed also to Lord Lansdowne. Moreover, His Majesty suggested indirectly to Lloyd George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, that the speech he was about to make at Newcastle (Oct. 9) be postponed. The chancellor was told that the King had already persuaded Lord Rosebery to refrain from speaking in opposition to the budget at Birmingham, and he thought Lloyd George should return the compliment.

The chancellor of the exchequer expressed profound regret at being obliged to disregard the King's suggestion. He explained that his silence at that moment might seriously impair the budget's chances of becoming law and convey the impression that he was wavering.

ing as to the justice of some of its provisions.

Not only did Lloyd George refuse to put off his speech at Newcastle, but in the speech he made there he took an uncompromising position for the budget in all its details and so made impossible the conference between the premier and Lord Lansdowne which the King had commanded.

Lloyd George Goes Abroad.

Furthermore, simultaneously with the King's arrival in London (Oct. 11) Lloyd George left for a motor tour on the continent, to be gone for precisely as many days as the King's visit here lasted.

The King, according to his custom had intended to summon Lloyd George to Buckingham Palace, there to bring fresh pressure on him. But the chancellor's departure plainly intimated to His Majesty that he could not be induced. The conflict between Lords and Commons is inevitable now.

The King, it is said, admires Lloyd George for his great ability and courage. But His Majesty hates Winston Churchill, whom he described the other day, it is reported, as "partly alien and wholly undesirable."

Lloyd George and Churchill are the men who are making the fight for the budget both in the cabinet and in the country and are showing resourcefulness and grit.

"Partly alien" refers to Winston Churchill's mother being the former Jennie Jerome of New York. Her first husband was Lord Randolph Churchill, Winston Churchill's father.

Explaining an Excuse.

An Atlanta merchant has frequent occasion to rebuke Ike, his darky porter, for his tardiness in reporting for duty in the morning. Ike is always ready with a more or less ingenious excuse. "You're two hours late, Ike!" exclaimed the employer one morning. "This sort of thing must stop! Otherwise I'm going to fire you. Understand?"

"Dead, Mistah Edward!" replied Ike. "It wasn't my fault dis time! Hones! I was kicked by a mule!"

"Kicked by a mule. Well, even if that were so, it wouldn't delay you for more than an hour. You'll have to think of a better excuse than that."

Ike looked aggrieved. "Mistah Edward," he continued, solemnly, "it might have been all right if dat mule kicked me in dis direction; but he didn't—he kicked me de odder way."—Atlanta Journal.

The Unexpected Truth.

The minister was spending the afternoon at the home of one of his members. The father told his little son to bring apples from the cellar. The child obeyed, and in the kitchen found an especially large red one which had been brought up the day before, so placed it on the dish with the others.

When they were passed this was the apple the minister took, and feeling it so warm, remarked to his host that the cellar must be very warm.

"Did you not bring these apples from the cellar, Ned?"

"Yes, father, all but the one pastor has; it was in the kitchen."

"Why did you not tell me?" asked the pastor.

"Well," with childish frankness, "I didn't think you would take the biggest one on the dish!"—Delinquent.

RAN OVER DYING HUSBAND.

Mangled by Two Autos Wife Unknowingly Drives Third Over Body.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 8.—After being mangled by two automobiles and while he was on the ground dying, Harvey L. Anderson, a leading merchant of Atlanta, was run over by another car which his wife was driving. Mrs. Anderson, without knowing she had driven the car over her dying husband, hurried into a nearby house and telephoned for an ambulance. When the ambulance arrived, Mrs. Anderson saw her car had struck her husband. Anderson was practically torn to pieces.

Oil King Buys 35,000 Trees.

Paris, Nov. 8.—A dispatch from Amsterdam to the Eclair says John D. Rockefeller has purchased 35,000 pine trees, costing over $200,000, from nurserymen of Gouda, a town in the south of the Netherlands. Mr. Rockefeller intends to plant these trees in a park.

MADE WELL AND STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bardonia, Ky.—"I suffered from ulceration and other female troubles for a long time. Doctors had failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and I decided to try it. It cured my trouble and made me well and strong, so that I can do all my own work." Mrs. JOSEPH HALL, Bardonia, Ky.

Another Woman Cured.

Christiana, Tenn.—"I suffered from the worst form of female trouble so that at times I thought I could not live, and my nerves were in a dreadful condition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me, and made me feel like a different woman. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is worth its weight in gold to suffering women."—Mrs. MARY WOOD, R.F.D. 3.

If you belong to that countless army of women who suffer from some form of female ill, don't hesitate to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs. For thirty years this famous remedy has been the standard for all forms of female ill, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, fibroid tumors, ulceration, inflammation, irregularities, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS

And you will generally find that they know of more good, intelligent people, those of good sense and discernment in your vicinity who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's World-famed Family Medicines than by all other proprietary medicines. They have been making these cures right along for over forty years and altogether likely you will easily find people all about you who will be only too glad to say a good word for them. These old reliable curatives are not exploited or urged upon the afflicted by extravagant and false promises but have a record of real, genuine cures to sustain them.

Among women Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is truly a favorite by reason of its remarkable cures which, for over forty years, by far exceed those which can be credited to any medicine extant. By a little inquiry you will no doubt find some of these cured and grateful cases in your immediate neighborhood, for they are to be met with practically EVERYWHERE. They are Dr. Pierce's best advertisements. Seek their advice if you are a poor despondent over-burdened broken down, weak, or pain-wracked woman, suffering from some derangement or weakness incident to your sex.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser in plain English, by R. V. Pierce, M. D., (new fully revised up-to-date edition) gives all particulars which women need to know about their peculiar functions and how to correct ordinary derangements and weaknesses. Cloth-bound volume of 1000 pages, 31 one-cent stamps, or in paper covers for 21 cents, post-paid. Why not send for it NOW? The New Edition is almost a household necessity.

Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PELLETS ARE A MILD BUT EFFICIENT PHYSIC.

THEY MUST KNOW